For Dummies Series Publishes the First Ever Microsoft Dynamics™ GP Book

Renato Bellu, senior consultant of Technology Business Solutions Practice in the Philadelphia office, releases the "Microsoft Dynamics GP For Dummies" book, the first book of its kind

Moorestown, NJ (October 10, 2008) — Renato Bellu releases "Microsoft Dynamics GP For Dummies" book, the first of its kind for the Microsoft Dynamics™ GP Community and For Dummies® series.

Renato got the idea to write the book while working with one of his clients. He is a senior consultant and manager of the Technology Business Solutions practice in the RSM McGladrey's Inner Circle and President's Club Philadelphia office, a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner of the Microsoft Dynamics™ GP and CRM solutions. His client was raving about the For Dummies series and its instruction to learn software quickly. Renato went to the internet for a quick search. Not finding the title, he instead found a literary agent and got his idea pitched to Wiley, the publishers of the For Dummies series. "I was impressed with Renato's credentials and the book proposal he put together" explains Bob Woerner, the Executive Editor at Wiley Publishing. "Accounting books had been a good topic for the Dummies brand and generated a lot of success for us in the past. In my research I could not find any other book that had previously been published on Microsoft Dynamics™ GP. We are the first and only book published on the topic."

The Dynamics™ GP Community has more than 38,900 customers and 2,300 partners world wide. The reputation for Microsoft Dynamics™ GP is in serving small and midsize segment organizations. Over the past few years, Dynamics GP has quietly built a substantial customer base in segments serving large organizations and divisions of global enterprises. Dynamics GP's success continues to grow as it receives more industry recognition for outstanding achievement in technology innovation.

Renato Bellu has over 15 years of experience as an ERP implementation specialist focused on Dynamics™ GP. He has been the Dynamics™ GP "Thought Leader" for Avanade, a division of Accenture and joint venture with Microsoft, in addition to creating the first-ever Great Plains Practice for a Big 4 CPA firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP. Renato has been the lead designer on some of the largest Microsoft Dynamics™ GP projects ever implemented, and for this work has become a recipient of the prestigious Microsoft Pinnacle Award. He holds certifications from Microsoft Dynamics™ GP including Financials and Integration Manager, and holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Delaware.

"Microsoft Dynamics GP For Dummies" can be purchased from your favorite book seller.
